BASCH & KEEGAN

PERSONAL INJURY ATTORNEYS

Brief Insights

A DIGITAL BULLETIN—NOVEMBER 2019

For the third year in a row, Basch and Keegan is working with The Ulster County People's Place to supply stuffing and butter for their annual Thanksgiving Feast, which provides Thanksgiving meals for hundreds of families in need every year.

Most food drives can't accept perishable food including the butter required to make stuffing. People's Place has historically had difficulty offering this traditional Thanksgiving dish. We decided that the best way we could help would be to engage our amazing Hudson Valley community by creating a one-for-one program: for every box of stuffing we collect, we will provide one stick of butter.

This year we have decided to expand the contribution by providing gravy. After all, what's Thanksgiving without gravy?

You can help out by donating stuffing or gravy to our office (307 Clinton Avenue, Kingston, NY 12401) before November 22, 2019.

John DeGasperis on Radio Kingston's La Voz

On October 23, 2019, Basch and Keegan partner John Degasperis appeared on Radio Kingston's La Voz, a radio show focused on Kingston's Latino community. Together with La Voz host Mariel Fiori, John addressed common questions and concerns about personal injury law, providing a concise overview of how personal injury lawsuits work in the process.

Some of the discussion focused on how personal injury law impacts the Latino community specifically, but this informative video is a great watch for anyone:
