8th Annual Stuffing Drive for People's Place: Helping Our Community Celebrate Thanksgiving

For the 8th consecutive year, Basch & Keegan is proud to partner with People's Place of Ulster County to make Thanksgiving a little brighter for families in need. Our annual stuffing drive is officially underway, and we're inviting everyone to join us in the spirit of giving.

For each box of stuffing donated by our generous community, Basch & Keegan will match it with a stick of butter—ensuring that People's Place has the ingredients to make their Thanksgiving Feast complete. Together, we can make sure that no family has to go without on this special holiday.

Donations can be dropped off at our offices anytime until November 18th. Every box of stuffing makes a difference, so bring one (or several!) and join us in making Thanksgiving a true community celebration.

Upstate & Litigate Season 2, Episode 2: When Products Fail and Consumers Fight Back

In the latest episode of Upstate & Litigate, attorneys Derek Spada and John DeGasperi from Basch & Keegan dive into the critical topic of product liability. They explore how product liability impacts consumer safety, what it means for businesses, and why holding companies accountable is essential. Derek and John walk listeners through the steps to take if they think they have a product liability case: save the evidence, find an attorney who believes in the cause, and act quickly.

A single case can have far-reaching effects, transforming not just consumer safety but also influencing industry standards. Listen in to discover how fighting back against faulty products can lead to lasting change.
